

FREE WILDLIFE PHOTOGRAPHY WORKSHOP FOR GIRLS

Gulf Coast Bird Observatory

Sept. 22, 2018
9:30am - 3:30pm

Is photography your passion? Do you love animals?

Spend a day with wildlife photographer, naturalist, and teacher Kathy Adams Clark.

This FREE workshop is for girls ages 13-18. You will get a photography lesson, meet with a scientist to gain new insights of the Ruby-Throated Hummingbird as they migrate to their wintering grounds in Latin America, and photograph them in action.

HOW DO I APPLY?

Complete a short questionnaire describing your interest in photography and career goals.

If selected you must have access to your own equipment (camera, smartphone, tablet). 15 girls will be chosen to participate in the workshop. 2 spaces are for low-income applicants who will be provided with transportation and camera equipment for the day at no cost.

Early Decision Deadline: June 15, 2018
Final Application Deadline: August 20, 2018

Email us for an application:
Region2@girlswhoclick.org

Kathy Adams Clark is a photographer, naturalist, and teacher. Her goal is to promote photography and the natural world through teaching. When people experience the natural world through photography they will work to preserve it for future generations.

GENEROUSLY SPONSORED BY

Gulf Coast
Bird Observatory

Girls Who Click empowers teen girls to enter the male-dominated field of nature photography by offering free nature photography workshops all around the country. Learn more by visiting GirlsWhoClick.org